WHEREAS, Thousands of South Dakota students are required to travel several miles each day to get to their schools in the morning and return home late in the afternoon; and,

WHEREAS, In order to provide an adequate transportation system, schools, both public and private, have installed extensive school bus systems; and,

WHEREAS, School bus drivers occupy a most important role in the success of this program as they provide safe transportation for thousands of students each school day;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HARVEY WOLLMAN, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim December 26, 1978, as

SCHOOL BUS DRIVERS' DAY

In South Dakota, and urge all citizens to participate and express appreciation to the school bus drivers who, as a group, have made it possible for youth to attend well-equipped, modern schools and receive the best in education.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eighth Day of September, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Eight

HARVEY WOLLMAN, GOVERNOR
